

Please rename "Shop" to "Venues".

Add the following slogan beneath the heading:
Discover Spaces That Bring Events to Life

Then add the following description:
Every successful event starts with the right venue. As part of Zusammen Tours and Travel Agency's MICE segment, we offer a carefully selected collection of conference centres, meeting rooms, exhibition venues, hotels and distinctive event spaces to suit a wide range of business events and occasions. Whether you're organising a corporate meeting, incentive trip, conference, exhibition or gala dinner, our venue listings make it easy to find the ideal setting. Discover spaces that inspire collaboration, create lasting impressions and provide the perfect backdrop for successful events across Namibia.

The title can remain as it is, but where the price is currently displayed, it should instead show the name of the country. When adding a venue, we should also have the option to specify the country where the booking amounts or prices apply.

Additionally, where it currently says “Add to Cart,” please change it to “View Details.”

The venues should be displayed in a grid of two columns so they are larger and more visible to clients. The Confevo watermark should be removed, and the venue images/cards should be made bigger than they are currently so clients can clearly view the venues before clicking on them.

Where the book is, please make it a gallery of 10 images with an auto-slide/rolling feature. The client should also be able to manually press “Next” to view the images.

In the description section, the price displayed above is actually the name of the country. The description area should be editable, as each product will have a different description that we can add ourselves from the backend.

Directly below each description, there must be a call-to-action button that says “Request a Proposal.” The button should be slightly larger and clearly visible to the client.
